Fundraising Strategy for Cornerstone – Volunteers needed

The Finance Forum would like to hear from any volunteers who would be interested in helping them develop a fundraising strategy for Cornerstone to supplement congregational giving and letting income.

The church has an urgent need to identify and unlock new sources of funding for our church so that we can continue our work of service to the community and mission to grow the church. You don't need to be brilliant with numbers but we do need people who have ideas and/or contacts who may be able to help develop the strategy.

Deacon Sarah and I attended a couple of webinars recommending a way to approach this and we intend to use the material from these to develop the strategy so, although fundraising experience would be useful, none is necessary.

Please contact Fred King, Peter Bramhill, or Brian Frogley if you are interested or want to find out more.
