A request for help from the Learning and Worship Forum

This is an invitation to consider whether you can help to support our Sunday worship in a number of different ways. Could you be a Welcome Steward? This involves greeting people as they arrive, making them feel welcome and making sure they have access to the things they need for worship (e.g. a hymn book if needed).

Could your participation in worship include doing a reading? Support will be available if you would like to explore taking on this role.

If you are interested in either of these two roles, please speak to Christine Lawley.

As part of making our worship more inclusive, we want to provide large print words every week at all three chapels. Is this something you could help with? For more information about this important contribution to our worship and what is involved, please speak to Christine Lawley.

Proceeds will be given to
Evalina Children's Charity
